

Pledge of Confidentiality

LEGALTYPIST, INC.

certifies that each Legaltypist Digital Assistant is bound by the following confidentiality provision:

At all times hereafter to hold in strict confidence all information provided by any client of LegalTypist ("Attorney"), including, but not limited to, the identity of any Attorney's client, any information relating to any client of Attorney, including all communications between Attorney and any such client and all documents provided to LegalTypist in connection with services to be performed at any time by LegalTypist for Attorney (the "Confidential Information"). Use of the Confidential Information provided will be only in connection with the performance of services for Attorney, and will not, directly or indirectly, be divulged, disclosed or communicated in any manner to any other person or entity.